VOTES AGAINST ROBERTS

Strong Opposition to Seating the Utah Representative.

A Canvass of More Than Two-thirds of the Members of the House Reveals a Large Majority Hostile to Him—General Sentiment Expressed Favors an Orderly Expulsion.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The "Herald" this morning prints what it claims to be a careful canvass of more than two-thirds of the members of the House of Representatives as to their attitude respecting the seating of Brigham H. Roberts, Representative-elect from Utah. It is stated in substance that of responses received from more than two-thirds of the members, but two, Mr. Lewis of Georgia, and Mr. Smith of Michigan, declare themselves in favor of admitting Mr. Roberts regardless of the charge brought against him.

While more than one-third of the members expressed themselves emphatically as intending to vote against seating Mr. Roberts, this proposition does not by any means indicate the whole number of those who will so vote. Many new members who have not yet taken their seats are disinclined to express their opinions for publication. There are many who take the ground that it would be improper for them to announce in advance their opinion in a case which they are to decide in judgment. In almost every instance these members, while giving non-committal interviews for publication, privately admit that they expect the evidence to be such as to warrant them in voting against Mr. Roberts. It is probable that Mr. Roberts will be sworn in when Congress assembles. Then will come the proceedings to expel him.

When Mr. Roberts was told the result of the canvass made by the "Herald," he is quoted as saying:

"If that be the condition, the members of the House have prejudged the case, and I have no word to say now."

Expressions of Opinion.

Mr. Roberts will, notwithstanding his comment, have an important hearing before the House of Representatives, although the preponderant sentiment of the members is against permitting him to retain his seat, if the facts in his case are as charged. Some of the expressions of opinion by members were as follows:

Mr. Curtis of Kansas—You may put me down as opposed to Roberts. I do not think his contention that the fact that he has lived in polygamy since the State was admitted is not in violation of the agreement with the United States is sound. That agreement, as contained in the enabling act and the Utah constitution, made polygamy unlawful. The continuance in polygamy is an unlawful act, the contracting of new marriages.

Mr. Kahn of California—I am unalterably opposed to polygamy, but I have not quite made up my mind on the Roberts case. I think a general law should be passed excluding polygamists from all offices rather than a special law for one individual.

Mr. Burleigh of Maine—I am against him at every stage of the proceedings.

Considers Utah Presumptuous.

Mr. Reeder of Kansas—I am against Roberts. I think it presumptuous in a law-breaker to think to pose as a law-maker, and I think it was presumptuous in the State of Utah to choose a polygamist to represent her.

Mr. Dostell of Illinois—I am opposed to seating Mr. Roberts. We cannot fail to recognize that polygamy is abhorrent to our people and that it cannot receive official endorsement.

Mr. Hull of Iowa—I told my people before I left Iowa that I intended to vote to unseat Mr. Roberts, and I certainly will do so. He is able to prove that the charges against him are unfounded. I would place the burden of proof upon him.

Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts—I am unalterably opposed to Mr. Roberts retaining a member of the coming Congress.

Mr. Shattuck of Ohio—If Mr. Roberts tells the truth about himself he ought to be expelled from the House.

Mr. Nease of Nebraska—I can consistently vote against the seating of Roberts, believing that I have the lawful right to do so. I shall oppose him. If, however, it develops that our law and Constitution Roberts has the absolute right to a seat in Congress, although against my inclinations, I shall vote for his retention. I don't believe that polygamy has the right to exist anywhere under the American flag. If Roberts is seated, he has not the right to bring all three of his wives here to Washington and to live with them openly.

Mr. Cushman of Washington—There is no doubt in my mind that the Republican majority in the Fifty-sixth Congress will unseat Mr. H. H. Roberts of Utah. The Republican party, I think, is almost united on that subject in response to the intellect and the virtue of the American people, who are arrayed against the spectacle of a Polygamist in the halls of Congress. The main question remaining for decision is the method of procedure and the time when action shall be taken.

There is a serious doubt in my mind if he can be prevented from taking the oath. The House has power to expel a member. The very form of the word "expel" presupposes a member being already in. In my judgment it would be a dangerous precedent to decide this matter when the member-elect offers himself to take the oath.

Mr. Underhill of New York—I am, of course, opposed to polygamy. But I doubt the legality of Roberts' expulsion. I fear, too, that it would furnish a bad precedent. Next year they may want to expel a man because he is a Hebrew or a free silver man. If the people of the United States want polygamists kept out, they should pass a general statute excluding from citizenship a Polygamist of New Jersey, Mr. Farris of Indiana, and Mr. Long of Kansas, are prepared to vote against Roberts if the evidence justifies such action.

Mr. Cochran of Missouri, is non-committal as to Roberts, but believes a constitutional amendment should be adopted depriving Polygamists of the right to vote in Federal or Congressional elections.

Fleming of Georgia; McLean of Mississippi; Burkett, of Nebraska; Taylor, of Alabama; Rodenburg, of Illinois; Grow, of Pennsylvania; J. T. McCleary, of Minnesota; Moody, of Massachusetts; Bowersock, of Kansas; Freer, of West Virginia; Landis, of Indiana; Newlands, of Nevada; Overmull, of Maryland, are all prepared to vote for the expulsion of Mr. Roberts if the evidence in his case warrants it. Among the other members, who, according to the "Herald's" poll, have placed themselves in this position, are:

Dougherty, of Missouri; Warner, of Illinois; White, of North Carolina; Bishop, of Michigan; Fletcher, of Nevada; Overstreet, of Indiana; Carney, of Missouri; Richardson, of Tennessee; Sims, of Tennessee; Minor, of Wisconsin; Burton, of Ohio; Robertson, of Indiana; Burleson, of California; Joy, of Missouri; Cowherd, of Missouri; Heburn, of Iowa; Thomas, of Iowa; Burke, of South Dakota; Crowley, of Illinois; Crumpacker, of Indiana; Chas. H. Wheeler, of Kentucky; Dail, of Texas; Carmack, of Tennessee; Davis, of Florida; Alwater, of North Carolina; Joshua S. Salmon, of New Jersey; Benjamin F. Hawkins, of New Jersey; Ojien, of Wisconsin; Hemenway, of Indiana; Reeves, of Illinois; Dahl, of Wisconsin; Corliss, of Michigan; Cady, of Illinois; Roe, of Arkansas; Crawford, of North Carolina; Rigg, of California; Caldwell, of Illinois; Needham, of California; Waters, of California; Metcalf, of California; Jenkins, of Wisconsin; Terry, of Arkansas; Ray, of New York; Bailey, of Kansas; Epps, of Virginia, and Quarles, of Virginia.

Tonight a conference of Republican members will take place at the Capitol. It has been called for the purpose of exchanging views respecting the Roberts case, and to try and determine upon the course that will be pursued regarding it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Thanksgiving Day was devoted principally to family reunions, the most important, and indeed the only, event of the day being the Alibi Club's annual tea. The day was all that could be desired as far as the weather was concerned, and out-of-door life was at its best.

It has been announced that Miss Mary Louise Baker, only daughter of United States Senator Lucien Baker, will be married at Leavenworth, Kans., early this winter to Charles H. T. Lowndes, passed assistant surgeon, United States Navy, now stationed at Manila. Miss Baker spent two winters with her father in Washington and two years at Vassar College. It was here that Miss Baker met Dr. Lowndes, who is a brother of Governor Lowndes, of Maryland.

Senator Beveridge of Indiana and family will spend the winter at the Portland.

The ladies of the board of visitors, Washington Hospital for Foundlings, desire to express in this way their thanks to the friends who sent contributions of money, groceries, etc., to the hospital on the occasion of their annual donation tea, November 23.

Miss Edith Latrobe, of Baltimore, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Loring, of K Street.

Charged With Burning a Barn.

CHARLESTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 1.—William Beckham, a young son of Dr. H. H. Beckham, of Dufield, Jefferson county, was brought here yesterday evening by Constable D. W. Hannah, on a warrant sworn out by J. C. Tabler, a well-known farmer of that place, on a charge of burning his barn about a month ago. Considerable surprise was expressed at the arrest, owing to the prominence of the lad's parents. The fire occurred about 7 o'clock in the evening, and when it was first discovered a man was seen running from the scene. Mr. Tabler, besides losing his barn, also lost all of the contents, which were uninsured. The boy is about twelve years old, and was accompanied by his father when brought here to answer the charge last night.

Burglars Rob a Banker's House.

LANCASTER, Pa., Dec. 1.—Burglars yesterday afternoon entered a second-story window of the North Duke Street residence of Isaac H. Lehigh, vice president of the People's National Bank, while the family was absent. The thieves used a ladder from an adjoining new building. They secured much valuable silverware and a considerable sum of money.

TRADE IN SOUTH AFRICA

American Goods Displacing Those of Other Countries.

Railroad and Stationary Engines Lead the List—Axes, Shoes, and Wire in Great Demand—England's Manufacturers Losing Their Hold. The Progress Made by Germany.

The partial suspension of business activity in South Africa, due to the war, has served to call attention to the rapid growth of American commerce in that part of the world during the past few years, and the popularity of American products and manufactures there, when brought into competition with those of nations which had formerly been supplying those markets.

A recent number of the "British and South African Export Gazette" received by the Treasury Bureau of Statistics contains a series of statements on this subject, and quotes Mr. Solomon, a Cape Town, South Africa, merchant, as saying:

"In some respects the British manufacturer is outdoing his American competitor, but I am afraid that in many cases the latter is getting the decided advantage. The former cannot afford to lose this important market, which, in my view, he does not study sufficiently."

On the other hand, the American manufacturer goes out of his way to please his clients in order to grasp a probable order. Take boots and shoes, for instance. It used to be asserted that American boots would not fit English feet. Now, however, American manufacturers use English lasts.

"It is the willingness of the Americans to adapt themselves to required styles, which has principally gained for them so large a share of the South African trade. Quite a number of Cape Town houses now handle American goods. As regards Germany, England cannot touch that country in the matter of blankets and chinaware, and in these and some few other classes of goods they are making important inroads into the market."

A similar publication in "Ironmongery" of recent date, says that South Africa imported during 1897 no less than 7,000 tons of steel, chiefly from the United States, the iron parts for which, however, were mostly furnished by other countries.

Mr. Robert M. Eadon, a Sheffield manufacturer, is also quoted by the "British and South African Export Gazette" as saying:

"American manufacturers are rapidly gaining in favor. Several lines were mentioned in the superior finish of American or German goods has caused their more extended adoption at our expense."

American engines, Mr. Eadon found, were much in evidence in South Africa, especially in the interior. Their lighter weight and the consequent smaller transport charges, where they have to be conveyed inland, frequently without the aid of railways or steamers, has, he said, no small part in effecting their ready acceptance. American mining machinery, saws, and axes were met with much greater quantity than the same class of goods from British workshops, but, apart from these goods, England had not lost trade in any noticeable extent.

Charged With Brutal Assault.

BERRYVILLE, Va., Dec. 1.—Albert Norris, alias "Chippie," the colored man who is accused of being one of the men who made a dastardly assault on Mr. Hough Nichols, of Rappahannock county, one night last week, and left him for dead upon the track of the Norfolk and Western Railroad, near Boyce, this county, was recaptured Monday night at his home, in Boyce, by Deputy Sheriff J. M. Lupton, and is now in jail here awaiting a hearing. Norris was arrested on Saturday last, but managed to escape from the officer who had him in charge. He is an old offender, and in the charge against him is proved, it will doubtless go hard with him.
